DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a surgical fastener, classified in class 606, subclass 151.
 - II. Claims 6-9, drawn to a surgical fastener delivery system, classified in class 606, subclass 142.
 - III. Claims 10-14, drawn to a method for inserting a surgical fastener, classified in class 128, subclass 898.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. For example, instead of being placed in a restraining device and deployed to press a plurality of layers of material together, the surgical fastener could be used by itself to engage a polyp inside an intestinal wall.
3. Inventions II and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP §

Art Unit: 3731

806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. For example, instead of advancing a restraining device through layers of material, the restraining device could be inserted through a patient's mouth, to the bowel wall, to release the fastener over a polyp.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. If applicant elects the apparatus claims (Inventions I and II), this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed inventions:

Invention I:

- I. Species I depicted in Figures 1A-1C, a surgical fastener having the body of an extension spring.
- II. Species II depicted in Figures 2-3, a surgical fastener where the lower coil forms a half circle.
- III. Species III depicted in Figure 4, a surgical fastener having symmetrical coils.

Invention II:

- I. Species I depicted in Figures 5A-5F, a deployment device having a swinging stop.
- II. Species II depicted in Figures 6A-6F, a deployment device having a rotatable head.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from Invention I and a single disclosed species from Invention II for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Art Unit: 3731

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirements be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
